Closing index for real-time indexes is disseminated as soon as the closing prices are determined.

<sup>3</sup> In general, index dissemination when a typhoon signal or black rainstorm warning is issued follows the rules of trading arrangements during typhoons and black rainstorms for securities and derivatives markets set by the stock exchanges.
If the relevant markets have to close early due to extreme conditions, closing index for Non-Real-Time Indexes will be available about 15 minutes after market close.

For the Dividend Point Index Series, index will be disseminated 10 minutes before trading resumes after the cancellation of a typhoon signal or black rainstorm warning.
